Those who have enjoyed their holidays during July and August will hopefully have happy memories and lots of photographs to share with family and friends; and those who wait until September to take their annual holidays will look forward to finding out more about this wonderful world that God has given us to look after and explore. September to a lot of people is a reminder that College and School begin again and there will be new rules to remember and abide by and new friends and teachers to get to know. More meetings to arrange and attend; these times can be character building but it may be a time when things get too much to handle and take in. Jesus said many times to his friends 'Do not be afraid' and his kind words helped to calm any situation they found themselves in. This can also be our comfort in today's busy world – Jesus reminding us to prioritise and look after ourselves so that we can look after others. Watch out and watch over one another and 'Do not be afraid' to ask for help – there are friends and family and many professional people who are there for us all. Enjoy life in all its fullness and I wish you all a...

Love and blessings, Rev'd Jenny
